

VOCABULARY

Fill in with the correct noun form

Verb/Adjective Form	Noun Form
dominate assist independent empower feminine equal

VOCABULARY

Fill in with the correct noun form

Verb/Adjective Form	Noun Form
dominate assist independent empower feminine equal	domination assistance independence empowerment feminism equality/equity

FUNCTION

Fill in with: as well as - moreover - in spite of - although

1. A great deal of women work to support their families.
_____, they look after their houses.
2. _____ he is smart, he couldn't solve this math problem.
3. The new president promised to provide free education _____ health care for everyone.
4. _____ the noise, she managed to sleep like a baby.

FUNCTION

Fill in with: as well as - moreover - in spite of - although

1. A great deal of women work to support their families.
Moreover, they look after their houses.
2. Although he is smart, he couldn't solve this math problem.
3. The new president promised to provide free education as well as health care for everyone.
4. In spite of the noise, she managed to sleep like a baby.

FUNCTION

What would you say in these situations?

1. You were late for a school meeting.

2. Your neighbor is making a lot of noise every night.

3. You apologized to you teacher for being absent.

FUNCTION

What would say in these situations?

1. You were late for a school meeting.

I apologize for being late.

2. Your neighbor is making a lot of noise every night.

I'm sorry to say this but you're making a lot of noise.

3. You apologized to your teacher for being absent.

I'm sorry for being absent, teacher.

GRAMMAR

Put the sentences in the passive voice.

1. Someone had stolen his scooter the other day.

2. They didn't invite him to the party.

3. His father was fixing the car.

4. Jane should buy a new smartphone.

GRAMMAR

Put the sentences in the passive voice.

1. Someone had stolen his scooter the other day.

His scooter had been stolen the other day.

2. They didn't invite him to the party.

He wasn't invited to the party.

3. His father was fixing the car.

The car was being fixed by his father.

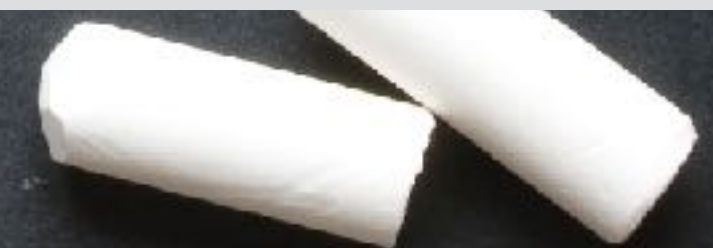

4. Jane should buy a new smartphone.

A new smartphone should be bought by Jane.

GRAMMAR

Fill in with: call off - hurry up - look after - take off - find out.

1. In Japan, people _____ their shoes when they get home.
2. She _____ my kids tonight when I was at work.
3. His wife _____ the truth about his relationship.
4. They _____ the meeting as the manager was on a trip.
5. _____, we're late for the party.

GRAMMAR

Fill in with: call off - hurry up - look after - take off - find out.

1. In Japan, people take off their shoes when they get home.
2. She looked after my kids tonight when I was at work.
3. His wife found out the truth about his relationship.
4. They called off the meeting as the manager was on a trip.
5. Hurry up, we're late for the party.

