

English Proverbs

The pen is mightier than the sword

What's a proverb?

A proverb is a short saying that is commonly known by public, and repeated as a piece of advice or suggestion. A proverb usually expresses the common truth.

English Proverbs

Unscramble the proverbs

Actions louder than words.

A picture is worth a thousand words.

Together as a flock of birds.

Don't judge a book by its cover.

Practice makes perfect.

English Proverbs

Actions speak louder than words.

What you do is more important than what you say.

A picture is worth a thousand words.

An image can tell a story better than words.

Birds of a feather flock together.

People who are similar spend time together.

Don't judge a book by its cover.

Don't judge someone or something by appearance.

Practice makes perfect.

The more you do something, the better you will become at it.

Translating Proverbs

Can you translate the proverbs into Arabic?

Strike while it's hot.

An apple a day keeps the doctor away.

The early bird gets the worm.

Don't put off until tomorrow what you can do today.

Cleanliness is next to godliness

Translating Proverbs

Can you translate the proverbs into Darija Arabic?

The hunter of the ostrich will find it.

If peach was a cure, it would cure itself.

When the stomach gets full it tells the head to sing.

The camel never sees his own hump but that of his brother.

Stir the water and the thirsty shows up.