

COMMUNICATION: Where's the bank?

Bob: Excuse me, where is the central bank?

Sara: It's on Mohammed VI Avenue. It's across from the mall.

Bob: Thank you!

COMMUNICATION: Where's the bank?

Lisa: Excuse me, where is the train station?

Amine: It's on the corner of Hassan II and Mohamed VI. It's across from the Royal Theater.

Lisa: Is it between the bank and the restaurant?

Amine: Yes, it is.

Lisa: Ok, thank you!

GRAMMAR: Prepositions of Place

Question

Where's the...?

Answers

It's on...

It's next to...

It's across from...

It's on the corner of...

It's between ... and ...

GRAMMAR: Prepositions of Place

Where's the shopping center?

It's on Pine Street. It's across from the hospital.

